

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Governor,
ASA S. RUSHNELL, of Clark.

For Lieutenant Governor,
ASA W. JONES,
of Mahoning.

For Supreme Judge,
WALTER GUILBERT,
of Noble.

For Clerk of Supreme Court,
JOSIAH B. ALLEN, of Athens.

For State Treasurer,
SAMUEL B. CAMPBELL, of Jefferson.

For Attorney General,
FRANK S. MONNETT, of Crawford.

For Member of Board of Public Works,
EDWARD L. LYBARGER, of Coshocton.

Fred Brand of Haskins, was in Perryburg on Wednesday. Fred is a candidate for Commissioner as all our readers know, and is one of the most worthy and competent men in the county for that important office.

Deshler Flag publishes a sketch of Henry county's Republican Senatorial candidate, John Vogt, the sketch being illustrated with a cut of the candidate. Henry county will make special effort to secure the nomination of Mr. Vogt and his chances for being one of the nominees is remarkably good.

L. B. FRAKER of this place, who was nominated for Surveyor at the convention last week, is a thorough master of his profession in every detail and will make Wood county a surveyor that will give universal satisfaction to all classes of people who work under him on ditches, etc. No mistake was made in his nomination.—Weston Herald.

Coroner Thomas is still engaged in official investigation of the Dienst poisoning case. The stomach of the dead woman was taken to Toledo for examination and poison found therein in sufficient quantities to warrant further investigation. It is understood there is new evidence being brought to light, which may lead to very interesting developments.

It is again reported that the T. & M. V. electric railway will be extended to B. G. and that the right of way has all been secured for that purpose. Two different routes are talked of, but it is not yet determined which will be used. One route is through Waterville and Haskins, while the other is direct from Perryburg to B. G. along the old Findlay plank road. The latter route would be the most direct, and greatly decrease the time between Toledo and the hub of Wood county.

Commissioner Kingsbury is kept very busy these days, and is constantly on the move. As yet the new board of Commissioners and the Commission have taken no decisive steps regarding the court house contracts, but have appointed a committee consisting of Belles, Kingsbury and Baldwin who are in correspondence with the architects and endeavoring to arrive at some conclusion regarding the best manner of settling the difficulties that have arisen, and from our knowledge of Mr. Kingsbury's character and disposition, we are satisfied that he will use every endeavor to arrange an amicable settlement of all differences.

Some of the Toledo papers and the Sentinel seem to be somewhat agitated over the fact that the JOURNAL announces its determination to support Mr. Griffin for senator in the event of his nomination, which seems to be almost a settled fact. We regret that we may be the cause of uneasiness to these journals, and also that we cannot see all the real line points that these papers urge against his nomination. It is no more strange that he should want an office with a $600 salary attached thereto, than it is that the numerous other aspirants should be willing to accept the same. If he voted for the pipe line bill it is no more than would have been done by any other Lucas county man, and if the same bill had been as beneficial to Wood county, a Wood county Representative would have worked for its passage just as much as Griffin or any other Representative did, if he had been working for his county's interest. We do not, and never have, very thoroughly appreciated the fight that has been on between the different factions of Republicans of Toledo, and are unable to see any great difference in the style of Toledo politicians. Our experience with the "other side" in Toledo has been such that we see but little difference in the quality or methods of their politics and the district would be as well served by Griffin as any other Toledo politician.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Will Open in Bowling Green, Monday, August 19th.

The annual institute of the Wood County Teachers' association begins at the Central school building, Bowling Green, Monday, August 19, and continues two weeks.

The executive committee has worked to make this the most successful institute ever held, as the program indicates.

Margaret Southerland, principal of Columbus normal school, and Dr. S. Burns, of Canton, have been engaged for the first week. They are educators of national reputation. Come the first week to hear them.

C. S. Coler, of Sandusky, and Clara G. Lagg, will have charge of instructions the second week. Miss Lagg will instruct in grammar, language, reading, literature and school management.

Prof. Coler will instruct in psychology and arithmetic. He is known as an able and earnest educator.

The teachers who make a practice of coming to the institute the second week only will miss a rare treat. For several years the executive committee have tried to secure Margaret Sutherland's services, but were unable to do so. They were successful this time simply because she was engaged a year ago. Her engagement for institute work are made more than a year in advance.

The reputation for real enthusiasm, for living interest and for quiet attention of Wood county teachers is known throughout the state, and it helped the committee to secure Burns and Sutherland, Coler and Lagg.

Several special features will be introduced in the coming institute, one of the most important of which will be a director's day. Prominent school directors of Wood county will talk on subjects of interest to directors, parents and teachers.

Miss Reveley's success in last year's institute was so marked that the executive committee asked her return. Work in other places prevented her but Margaret Sutherland and Clara G. Lagg were secured. Thus the work of instructing in the institute is divided equally between the men and the women.

Attention, teachers! Every teacher of Wood county who has completed the required reading of O. T. R. C. for 94-95, or for 93-94 and has not received a certificate for the same will do so at the annual institute by making application to D. A. Haylor, the county secretary.

The Board of Control of O. T. R. C. adopted the following books for the year 95-96:

I. Pedagogy—McMurry's General Method.
II. Literature—Shakespeare's Henry V.; Lord Bacon's Essays, Civil and Moral; Riberby, by John Burroughs.
III. History—Gordy's The History of Political Parties in the United States; Webster's Oration on Adams and Jefferson; The Weeks Current, or Current History.

IV. Science—Gray's How Plants Grow (to be completed).

Recommended—Report of the Committee of Fifteen; Tompkins, The Philosophy of Teaching; The Schoolmaster in Literature.

D. A. HAYLOR, Sec. Wood County.

NOTES.

The county secretary will have a full set of the O. T. R. C. books for 95-96 at the annual institute, and will be able to give information concerning the same to the teachers.

All teachers who wish room and board during the institute, will be provided if they will notify the chairman of the executive committee, D. A. Haylor. So many prefer to find places for themselves that the committee will undertake to find places only for those so requesting.

Another of the special features of this institute will be the evening lectures, the round table sessions and the annual social.

Remember that August 19-23 and 26-30 are the dates for the annual institute.

"Lacoma and the Great Northwest," "David Livingstone," "Man's Trinity of Power," "Humor in the School room," are some of the subjects for the evening lectures during the institute.

Mrs. Rose Carothers will speak upon "The Importance of Physiological Temperance Instruction in the Schools," August 28 or 29. The discussion of this subject is asked by the W. C. T. U. of Wood county, and was cheerfully granted by the officers.

Odd Fellows Temple.

The Odd Fellows of Fort Meigs lodge of this place, have just closed a deal in which they purchased the property formerly occupied by Fred Yeager's dry goods store. It is the intention of the lodge to build a fine two-story brick block with double store room on lower floor, while the second story will be fitted up and occupied as a temple for the lodge. The price of the lot was $900, and the building will be a great ornament to the village. The Odd Fellows are to be congratulated upon their enterprise and success. Conrad Kohi was in Bowling Green this week attending to the business for the lodge.
